Sorry I missed this in my email. Here is the latest. We received additional comments from Mike K yesterday and Debbie today. We are briefing OMB this Thursday and hoping to continue to consult with the Tribe on 2/3. Depending on the OMB brief outcomes, I would think we should have a revised version for Janet's review late next week or the following week depending on if OAR wants to review it after we incorporate their latest comments. Hope that helps. Take care, Dee

I think so. The IO is just trying to keep tabs on when the official final concurrence version for Janet will be sent over for review. I told them Debbie and Joe were taking a look and it depended on their comments.

It would be good to just give them (or me and I'll do it on my Thursday calls with Britney) a heads up on when the next version will be coming.

Hi Eric,

Just catching up on email, did you get what you need on this?

Thanks,

Dee

Can one of you let me know an approximate date that we plan to send the next draft of the U&O FIP over to OAR? Also, the OAR IO has requested both a “clean” copy and a redline-strikeout.

Thanks!
